

POLITECNICO
MILANO 1863

PHD STEP-CHANGE SEMINAR SERIES

Pathogen Emergence at the Human–Wildlife Interface: Ecology, Spillover, and Public Health

David Hayman | Massey University

Emerging diseases often stem from human–wildlife interactions, where ecological change and biodiversity loss drive spillover. Studies of bats and other reservoirs show how ecology and mobility shape virus spread, while One Health approaches support risk detection, early warning, and pandemic prevention.

October 14, 2025 | 11:30 a.m.
De Donato Room
Building 3

Per informazioni:
phd-stepchange.polimi.it